Life of King Edward VIII - - - No. 4—His Travels

His Travel Days Are Now Over

Days of travel are virtually over for King Edward VIII, but before he exceeded the British Empire he had visited almost every corner of the earth. In the fifth of a series of six stories, Milton Brown, Bulletin European correspondent, here tells of the globe-trotting experiences of Edward when he was Prince of Wales.

LONDON, Feb. 4.—Because it will be almost impossible for him to travel much in the future, it is well that Edward VIII was already one of the world's most-travelled men before he assumed the crown.

After the World War he launched on a series of long journeys which took him to every corner of the earth and to almost every part of the British Empire.

In 1919, he made a trip to the United States which assured him the personal interest of that country. After a typical ticker-tape New York welcome, he went to Washington and spent a half hour with the invalid President Wilson, climbed the stairs to the second-floor bedroom where the stricken president lay.

Then he went on to Canada and brought the ranch in Alberta which he had operated ever since, frequently sending to it blooded stock from his English farms in an effort to improve Canadian stock raising.

In 1920, the prince visited the West Indies, went through the Panama Canal and on to Australia and return.

In 1921 came a trip to India, China, and Japan, with return via Siberia.

In 1922, he went again to Canada to visit his ranch.

AGAIN PAYS VISIT TO CANADA AND U.S.

In 1924, he again visited both Canada and the United States. Traveling this time incognito, he attended the British-American polo matches on Long Island and stayed there three weeks with friends. It was during this trip that he was lunched at the White House with President Coolidge and danced with many American beauties.

In 1925, he journeyed to West Africa, South Africa, and South America.

In 1926 came another trip to Canada. In 1928 he was on a hunting trip to East Africa when news came of the grave illness of his father, King George V. The prince cut short the

After a year at home following his return from Australia, Wales visited the battlefields where he had served prior to taking an official tour of the United States.

After observing the polo match between England and America, the prince called on President Coolidge and then visited his ranch in Alberta.

In 1925 Britain's good-will envoy travelled through South Africa, the Argentine and Chile before returning home.

Back at his ranch in Canada in 1927, he was accompanied by Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin. It was in 1928 that he made his first plane flight.

WIDOW BLAMES GOVERNOR FOR LIGGETT DEATH

Claims Murder Would Not Have Been Committed Without Permission

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 4.—Mrs. Walter Liggett claimed a highly dramatic episode of Isadore Blumenfeld's trial for the assassination Monday with the assertion that Governor Floyd Olson—and his "pang"—permitted the slaying.

Soon after, his nervousness broke down in her long testimony she collapsed and court recessed for three hours.

GOVERNOR ILL.

At Rochester where the governor is recuperating from an operation, he could not be reached for comment on her charge. The governor was responsible for appointment of special prosecutors to aid the case against Blumenfeld, also known as "Kid Can."

"The murder would not have been committed without Governor Olson's permission," the slight woman, garbed in black, told a crowded courtroom.

She explained her statement as "meaning they either ordered or permitted it."

OLSON'S GANG GOT HIM

"I called my nephew after Walter was shot," Mrs. Liggett testified, and said "Governor Olson's gang got Walter, mother."

She asked, "Do you know who did it?" and I said, "Yes, Kid Can."

Most regarded as the prosecution's most important witness, Mrs. Liggett related her identification of Blumenfeld as her husband's slayer.

Germany Is Now Forging Ahead With Rearming

BERLIN, Feb. 4.—Germany is forging ahead with her rearmament plans.

Legislative moves here indicate that by the end of this year the German navy will be the most powerful in the world.

The 36 army divisions announced last May. These comprise more than 700,000 regulars.

TEA TASTERS SIT DOWN TO ANNUAL PARTY

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—The United States government's tea tasters sat down Monday for their annual tea party, surrounded by 1,000 different grades and varieties of tea. The occasion was the yearly meeting of the board of tea experts, which last year examined and tested the quality of agriculture to import 600 pounds of tea set against annual import.

The tasters, seven men, sat around a revolving table, and the tea samples were submitted by various tea importing companies and the standards set up by the board yesterday will govern all imports of tea for 1936.

GOLD FLOW IS REVERSED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—The flow of gold across the Atlantic was reversed Monday after adding about $200,000,000 of the monetary metal to the United States supply to the last 16 months. Secretary Morgenthau announced the treasury had licensed $240,000 for shipment to France and $300,000 to Holland.

Saskatchewan Slot Machine Act Ruled Invalid At Regina

REGINA, Feb. 4.—Slot machines banned from the province last year will likely return with declaration of Saskatchewan court of appeal Monday that the slot machine act of the legislature was invalid. The last case originated at Saskatoon when William Karmington of that city was convicted last August of keeping a slot machine. Chief grounds for the decision was the province was passing legislation infringing dominion criminal law.

The treasury, seven men, sat around a revolving table, and the tea samples were submitted by various tea importing companies and the standards set up by the board yesterday will govern all imports of tea for 1936.

FORMER OPERA STAR IS DEAD

MARCO, 83, former opera star, died Sunday night in a rooming house here.

The peak of her career came in 1875 when she sang at the Imperial theatre in Moscow, sharing honors with the late Maria Maludina. She was the same roles on alternate nights. In 1927 she staged a comeback in a New York concert, and was acclaimed by critics as "the oldest soprano" and "America's oldest prima donna."

Born in New Orleans, her name was Catherine Smith and she was the daughter of the late Mrs. Smith, an actor. In recent years she had lived here on a small income provided by the National Vaudeville Artists and the Actors' Fund.

LEAD WHISTLE FOUND AFTER FIFTY YEARS

MONTREAL, Feb. 4.—The little lead whistle Phillips Pettigrew lost more than a half century ago has been found.

Doctors located it Monday while probing an irritation in the lung of the tavern-keeper, named Westmore, morning they will attempt to recover it with the aid of a bronchoscope.

They said it had been lodged here thirty years ago, and was acquired by critics as "the oldest soprano" and "America's oldest prima donna."

Born in New Orleans, her name was Catherine Smith and she was the daughter of the late Mrs. Smith, an actor. In recent years she had lived here on a small income provided by the National Vaudeville Artists and the Actors' Fund.

HAMILTON, Ont., Feb. 4.—Canada would have to keep pace with aerial development in other domains if it wished to earn a prominent place in empire aviation. The aviation writer of Toronto, told 100 delegates from 25 flying clubs last night at the banquet of the Association of Canadian Flyers. ## JAPANESE IS REAL COWPER TELLS KIWANIS

Oriental Invasion of Pacific Coast Industries

Grows Apoc

J. S. Cowper, well known columnist and writer of the "Bouncing Show" which appears in the Edmonton Bulletin, was the guest speaker at the Kiwanis club on Monday in the McLeod hotel. His subject was "Oriental Invasion of the Pacific Coast."

Mr. Cowper in his description of the Asiatic penetration related how he as a journalist had been assigned to the task of investigating the Oriental problem in British Columbia and how as a result of the investigation and the publicity given to it, federal action was obtained that led to stricter regulations being enforced in regard to Oriental immigration into Canada.

"I went into the townships of British Columbia and found that the Orientals had driven out the white people from the berry industry. I went into the Okanagan valley and found that Chinese and Japanese labor was displacing white labor. I went into the harbors and inlets of British Columbia and found that 80 per cent of the fishing licenses were held by Orientals."

SERIOUS SITUATION
"It was a serious situation and needed publicity. Particularly was this true of the fishing industry, a time of peace fishing is an important industry in that time of war it is even more important as it is the training ground for the defense fleet. To have this in the hands of an alien and a potential enemy race was indeed serious."

"I wrote thirty-five articles and was invited by the Executive Board of Trade to debate the subject with the Japanese Consul. I was able to show that the Japanese figures in regard to license and to Japanese labor used in British Columbia accounted for less than half of the Japanese employed in industry as seen by the British Columbia official registry."

JAPAN COMES FIRST
"To add to the seriousness of this rapid penetration are two factors which the public might overlook. In the first place every Japanese holds dual citizenship and is able to promise before leaving Japan that if he takes out citizenship papers in the country he migrates to he will always hold allegiance to Japan. The other factor is the teaching of Japanese girls to raise as many children as possible when in an alien country in order that one day by penetration that country will become part of the Japanese empire."

"In 1930 in one hundred and forty births in B. C. the Japanese today are in eight are Oriental. Most of them are Japanese."

"I found that the Japanese fishermen were soundly all the Japanese were bringing, Oriental, in by smuggling methods and were making it impossible for white men to fish in the Pacific waters of B. C."

INTIMATE GLIMPSES AND INSIDE STUFF ON THE MOVIE COLONY

MOST good actors and actresses have big heads. Literally large, not figuratively.

Elmer Feyer says so. Elmer is the portrait specialist at Warner's. He has been bottling hundreds of stars for 10 years. Looking over his large array of favorite likenesses, he got to thinking about the actual size of heads the other day.

URGEE REPEAL AAA STATUTES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Congressional leaders moved quickly last night to carry out President Roosevelt's recommendation for removal from the statute books of three of the four remaining phases of AAA farm legislation.

An new farm legislation advanced from the Senate floor last night forwarded an eight-line special message to Congress urging prompt repeal of the Bankhead cotton control, Keri-Smith tobacco and potato control laws. He did not mention the Jones-Costigan sugar control.

"This recommendation is made," Mr. Roosevelt said, "because of the termination of the program of agricultural production adjustment under the act of May 12, 1933, as amended, known as the 'Agricultural Adjustment Act' to which the three acts mentioned were auxiliary."
